

Writing Prompts

Good authors are always writing.

Good writing has a beginning, three points, and a conclusion. In the beginning, rephrase the prompt, write your three or more points in different sentences, and restate the prompt in the conclusion.

Feel free to write your answer on the paper, or using the Note tool on Seesaw.

